SAYS HE IS PERSECUTED. SICKLES IN FIGHTING MOOD.

Lawyer Johnson's Side of the Abandoned Baby Case.

He and Miss Casey's Lawyer Quarrel in the Tomba Court.

"You lie! You offered to settle the case for $15!" That is the kind of a lawyer you are. You would settle for five cents, and I would smack your face for five cents, if it weren't here!

This was the culmination of a wordy battle this morning, which was promptly stopped by Justice McMahon, and was brought out in the examination in the Tomba Court, of the complaint of Lawyer Samuel Johnson, of 176 Broadway, who charged Nelly Casey, a good-looking young woman, with having abandoned her child in his office.

The woman stood at the bar holding a pretty thirteen-month-old baby in her arms, which she charged Johnson with being the father of. Her lawyer, George W. Wilson, stood beside her.

It was Johnson who gave the lie in the presence of the Court, and Justice McMahon interfered just in time to save the lawyers from coming to blows.

Both parties in the case have figured before in the police courts, and the woman has a suit now pending in the Supreme Court, in which she charges Johnson with seduction and defamation of character, and asks for $10,000 damages on each charge.

She says that she was introduced to Johnson by the office of the lawyer, 22 Park Row, in January, 1889. Johnson made love to her, and she called several times at his office.

He represented himself as a single man, and she further also was promised to marry her, and referred to his home as his boarding-house. He was then married and living with his wife in Brooklyn.

His lawyer says he had Johnson arrested twice in Brooklyn and taken before the police justices, where after several adjournments the case was dismissed. He says that Johnson was discharged without the case being called, and intimates there was crookedness.

This woman had not arrested twice, and the Brooklyn courts fully decided that I was not the father of her child," said Johnson. "I met her when she called at my office about four years ago. She brought suit against me, Samuel Allison, pastor of the Emmanuel Baptist Church, for seduction and assault, and asked $50,000 damages. I would not take the case, and she afterwards asked me to be her lawyer."

"I refused. I have had to throw her out of my office, and she has threatened me with all sorts of trouble."

"She has a suit against me for $100,000 damages that her attorneys have never dared ask to be put on the trial calendar, and I will say now that her lawyer offered to stop the suit for $15."

His wife started the row, and there was a wordy war for several minutes.

Johnson said that Miss Casey called at his office yesterday afternoon and said she must help her.

"I want $50 from you," she is reported to have said. "If I am going to be dispossessed to-night, if you don't give it to me I will leave the child to her."

Johnson refused to give her any money, and the woman walked out into the hallway and left the child on the window-sill. Johnson then had her arrested.

Justice McMahon discharged the woman, and told her to go home in peace for her little one. She gave her residence as 324 Jay street, Brooklyn.

Johnson was formerly indictment clerk under District-Attorney Downing, of Queens County, who resigned his office while Governor Cleveland was in power.

It is said that Miss Casey's suit against the lawyer was never settled. She left the court with her baby in her arms.

Miss Casey said that she did not intend to abandon the child, and was coming back for it when arrested.

The Wound from Mr. Adams's Bullet Only Trifling.

Mount Vernon's Sensation, Happily, Will Not End in a Tragedy.

The topic of conversation at Mount Vernon this morning was the shooting of Mr. J. W. Chivvis, of the former dry-goods firm of Conkling & Chivvis, who while trying to get into Mr. Charles L. Adams's house on Chester Hill, was mistaken for a burglar.

"It makes no difference whether the process is civil or criminal, the Sheriff still has the right, and I can deputize any one, even a uniformed policeman, to serve a process, and he would be obliged to obey."

"The people don't seem to understand that so much power is lodged in the Sheriff, but it is, and it will be found that it will be executed by me to the extent of having all the people of the county extended."

"I don't care whether my request for a detail of policemen is granted or not, I can get all the volunteers I want at a moment's notice and specially deputize them in any case."

"Several prominent lawyers have offered to furnish me with deputies whenever I shall want them."

"As yet, I have had no occasion to use them, which she charges Johnson with seduction and defamation of character, and asks for $10,000 damages on each charge."

"The Sheriff has the right to issue his process, and the Police Commissioners have the right to issue their process, and the Sheriff has the right to issue his process, and the Police Commissioners have the right to issue their process."

Deputy Sheriffs Questioned As to Sharing Fees With Richard Croker.

Senator Fessett's Investigating Committee came down from Albany again to-day with its big guns all primed and loaded for another onslaught upon the Tammany stronghold.

The committee has not yet completed its investigation of the Sheriff's office, and the announcement of Mr. Ivins, the counsel, that a number of important witnesses, including Gen. Dan E. Six Chinese Criminals Banqueted and Then Executed.

Dom Pedro Sinking and the Last Sacraments Administered.

"Scotty" Cox and Jack Sullivan Battle for $800.

A sharp and bloody prize-fight, which ended in a draw, was fought in a barn on Long Island at an early hour this morning.

The principals were "Scotty" Cox and Jack Sullivan, both of this city. The stakes were $150 a side and an added purse of $300.

Cox is twenty-two years old, stands 5 feet 6 inches in height, and weighed in at 118 pounds. Sullivan is twenty-one years old, 5 feet 6 1/2 inches tall, and scaled at 129 pounds.

One-ounce gloves were used. Sullivan was handled by Billy Clarkson and Jack Harkins, while Cox was looked after by Eugene Hornbacher and Tommy Gilen. Johnny Eckhardt was chosen referee, and the timekeepers were Jack Croker for Cox and Dick Mahoney for Sullivan.

About forty prominent sports of this city, who had received the "tip" at a late hour last night, witnessed the bloody fight. They went at it hammer and tongs style, both getting in hard blows on the head and neck.

Scotty banged his left with terrific force on the right eye of his adversary and followed it with a hot one on Jack's nose, which he had seen coming, and this in turn, followed by a series of blows on the head and neck.

In the second round they repeated their heavy slugging, and Sullivan followed on in the third round with particularly savage blows, both men fighting like steel pigs.

Sullivan sent his left to Cox's right eye, and the blow was accurate for several minutes. Each received instructions to finish his fight on the fourth round, and they fought on the roof and over the rim. Cox's back and ribs were cut and bleeding, but he kept on fighting, and did not concede Cox the name of the "big fellow."

The next four rounds were not so lively, both being tired that a knockout was not possible. The spectators told the referee to stop the battle, but he had seen enough, and the referee called it a draw and the purse was divided.

DETECTED BY A NEW $10 BILL.

Walter Peters Accused of Robbing the Military Post Club.

Lieut. Goodwin and the steward of the Military Post Club of Governor's Island appeared in the Tomba Court this morning to obtain a warrant for the arrest of Bill Peters, a colored waiter, employed on the island.

The lieutenant stated that the buffet of the club house had been entered Thursday night last, and the waiter was seen to take away a large sum of money.

The thief also appropriated $10, which was in the cash drawer, and Peters paid a long outstanding debt with it, so that he was looked upon as the man who had stolen the money.

Monday Peters will have an opportunity of defending his good name, if he can.

LOOMIS WINDING UP.

Getting Ready for Beattie's New Broom on Monday.

Hans S. Beattie, the new Commissioner of Street Cleaning, will not take office until Monday next.

The outgoing Commissioner, Horace Loomis, had sufficiently recovered from his recent disability to enable him to attend to his official duties to-day, and he was usually engaged in his usual affairs of his administration and preparing the office for the reception of Commissioner Beattie on Monday.

Mr. Loomis will return to the Department of Public Works as Engineer in Chief of Sewers as soon as he has been relieved by the new Commissioner.

CHURCHES CAN'T CONSOLIDATE.

By decision of Judge Allen, the injunction against the proposed consolidation of St. Stephens' Protestant Episcopal Church, in West Forty-sixth street, with the Church of the Holy Trinity, at Lenox ave. and One Hundred and Twenty-second street, is dissolved.

Judge Allen gives as his reason for the decision that the call for the meeting, at which the consolidation was proposed, was not properly issued, and that the action taken at the meeting was therefore invalid and illegal.

HE FEARED BLACK BALLS.

W. J. Arkell Will Not Become a Member of the Manhattan Club.

W. J. Arkell has withdrawn his name as a candidate for admission to membership in the Manhattan Club because he is afraid of being blackballed.

A friend of his, Mr. Arkell says, told him that two of the members of the club were opposed to him because he is a Republican and a supporter of Russell Harrison. As Arkell is a Republican, he is afraid to be blackballed.

Mr. Arkell thought it as well to withdraw.
